

ONE11RESIDENCES-EXHIBITA

CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

This exhibit is a summary of the chronology of events and supporting documentation relating to the September 30, 2025 incident and the circumstances leading to it.

| Date         | Contact(s)                 | Event                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Record Significance                                                                                                       |
|--------------|----------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sep 9, 2025  | Tricia Fullerton,Owner | BuildingLinkmaintenance requestsubmitted reportingmedicine cabinetinstability, hinge failure,and inability to closeproperly.Record Ref. A1Record Ref. A2                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Earliest documentednotice regarding thecondition of themedicine cabinet.                                      |
| Sep 17, 2025 | Tricia Fullerton,Owner | Written notice providedto representatives ofthe Sponsor, GFIDevelopmentCompany, LLC,managementpersonnel, brokeragerepresentatives, andcounsel regardingongoing medicinecabinet defects,including concerns thatthe cabinet appearedtoo heavy for its hingesand may requirereplacement or outsideassistance.Record Ref. A3 | Escalated writtennotice identifyingongoing operationaland safety concernsbefore the incidentoccurred. |

---

| Date  | Contact(s)                       | Event                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Record Significance                                                    |
|--------------|-----------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sep 26, 2025 | Cliff Marks,Real Estate Salesperson | Follow-up communication transmitted by the owner's real estate representative, Clifford Marks, requesting immediate attention to the reported defects after no substantive response had been received.Record Ref. A4 | Demonstrates that concerns remained unresolved despite prior notice.          |
| Sep 29, 2025 | Alex Bass,Project Manager           | The reported condition was acknowledged and maintenance personnel were directed to inspect the medicine cabinet.Record Ref. A5                                                                                       | Reflects awareness of the reported condition immediately before the incident. |
| Sep 30, 2025 | Tricia Fullerton,Owner              | A mounted architectural panel associated with the medicine cabinet assembly detached from its mounted position and struck the owner in the head.Record Ref. A6                                                       | Incident giving rise to the claim.                                            |
| Sep 30, 2025 | Tricia Fullerton,Owner              | Emergency medical treatment obtained following the incident. Medical providers diagnosed a concussion and provided discharge instructions concerning monitoring and neurological symptoms.Record Ref. A7             | Initial documented medical treatment resulting from the incident.             |

| Date  | Contact(s)                                      | Event                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Record Significance                                                                                              |
|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sep 30, 2025 | FirstService Residential                               | The incident was reported to front desk and concierge personnel upon the owner's return from the emergency department.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Establishes prompt reporting following the incident.                                                                    |
| Oct 2, 2025  | Tricia Fullerton, Owner                                | Worsening symptoms including dizziness, lightheadedness, headache, and blurred vision required ambulance transportation and a second emergency medical evaluation. The treating physician documented a head injury occurring approximately two days earlier, noted a history of Postural Orthostatic Tachycardia Syndrome (POTS), and assessed the presentation as likely mild concussion syndrome.Record Ref. A8 | Documents worsening symptoms requiring ambulance transport and a second emergency evaluation following the head injury. |
| Oct 3, 2025  | FirstService Residential, GFI Development Company, LLC | Management became aware of the incident following direct communications from the owner to the property manager and broader management team.Record Ref. A9                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Reflects delay between initial reporting and management notification.                                                   |

| Date         | Contact(s)                   | Event                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Record Significance                                                      |
|--------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Feb 13, 2026 | GFI Development Company, LLC | Parker57 LLC provided a proposed Settlement and Release Agreement. The proposed agreement identified Parker57 LLC, GFI Development Company, LLC, and a broad range of affiliated entities, investors, consultants, insurers, attorneys, and related parties as released parties.Record Ref. A10 | Formal resolution discussions commenced and release terms were proposed. |
| Present      |                              | The matter remains unresolved. No settlement has been reached and no release has been executed.                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Current status of the matter.                                            |